BACKYARD STOUT

BOURBON BARREL-AGED IMPERIAL STOUT WITH MULBERRIES, MARIONBERRIES & BOYSENBERRIES

Feeling nostalgic this year, we dug back into our Bourbon County vault and pulled out an iconic recipe. Back in 2013, we released our "Backyard Rye" and our brewer Mike Siegel found himself hand picking mulberries off trees just steps away from our Goose Island Barrelhouse here in Chicago. This year, inspired by that initial release and by his own childhood memories of picking fruit in his own backyard, Mike was enthusiastic to get to work on this year's 2023 Bourbon County Brand Backyard Stout.

This barrel-aged stout is first aged in bourbon barrels for at least one year and then finished and blended with mulberries, boysenberries and marionberries. Each addition of berry contributes its own distinct flavor profile, with some adding sweetness and others providing acidity and complexity. A taste of the past, this imperial stout is a balanced and nuanced play on fresh fruit, vanilla, and chocolate.

BANANAS FOSTER STOUT

BOURBON BARREL-AGED IMPERIAL STOUT WITH BANANAS, CASSIA BARK & TOASTED ALMONDS

Welcoming back another member of the family this year, 2023 Bourbon County Brand Bananas Foster Stout makes its debut on the national stage. This recipe was first released in 2017 as Bourbon County Brand Proprietor's Stout only to Chicago drinkers. Beloved by many, that release is especially near and dear to innovation brewer Quinn Fuechsl's heart.

At the time when Goose Island first released this beer, the brewery hadn't experimented with bananas much. However, Quinn had a good feeling that the fruit, along with almond and cassia bark, would be perfect ingredients in a bourbon barrel-aged imperial stout — indeed, he was right. Sure to bring a bit of flair to your palate, this decadent pour is well-balanced with deep caramelization, aromas of fresh baked banana bread and warm notes of cinnamon and almond.

GOOSE ISLAND BOURBON Proprietor's COUNTY BRAND

MADE FOR CHICAGO

BOURBON BARREL-AGED IMPERIAL STOUT WITH TOASTED RICE, CASSIA BARK, AND RAISINS

Year after year, Proprietor's Stout is an homage to the adventurous craft beer community here in Chicago. 2023 Bourbon County Brand Proprietor's Stout embodies that spirit while subtly evoking a comforting sense of home and the holidays.

In the heart of Chicago winter, we were inspired by the warming flavors of a classic dessert: rice pudding. Never having used rice as an ingredient in a stout before, our brewers were excited for the opportunity to brew these flavors into a beer worthy of the city of Chicago.

Using a combination of cassia bark, brown sugar, raisins and toasted rice, the final recipe is a taste of home cooking. This stout wraps you in a culinary blanket of toasted rice, vanilla custard, dried fruit, and baking spices. Proprietor's is our love language, Chicago.

GOOSE ISLAND BOURBON Cask Finish COUNTY BRAND

TWO-YEAR CASK FINISH STOUT

IN COLLABORATION WITH OUR FRIENDS AT ANGELS ENVY

Introducing the newest addition to the Bourbon County family: our first ever "Cask Finish" stout. Inspired by the artistry of our friends at Angel's Envy, we embarked on a journey to further develop the complexity of our barrel-aged stout by introducing never before used "finishing barrels." The beer starts in freshly emptied barrels that once held Angel's Envy Kentucky straight bourbon. After aging in those for a year, the beer was transferred to a second set of Ruby Port wine barrels where it patiently matured for another year. This finishing process refined and amplified the flavors of cherry, spice and cocoa within our aged stout. Bourbon County Brand 2-Year Cask Finish Stout is a testament to our legacy as the originators of bourbon barrel-aged stout.
