

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT ORIGINAL

After crafting the very first bourbon barrel-aged imperial stout, we’ve learned that to have the best beer, you start with the best possible ingredients. Barrels are such an important ingredient, and we continue to use only the best our friends on the bourbon trail have to offer. Barrel-aged for an average of 14 months, the original bourbon county stout boasts deeply developed flavors of fudge, vanilla, and caramelized sugar with a rich, decadent mouthfeel.

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT CHERRIES JUBILEE

This beer began its aging journey in freshly emptied bourbon barrels, which impart rich layers of oak, warm vanilla, and subtle baking spice. It was then finished in cognac barrels, adding elegant notes of dried fruit and contributing to a rich, full mouthfeel. Following the aging process, the stout was blended with montmorency cherries, citrus and panela—resulting in a velvety, decadent beer.

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT CHOCOLATE PRALINE

First aged in freshly emptied bourbon barrels, this stout draws inspiration from the underlying decadence of chocolate, caramel, and roasted nuts found in original. Layered with a blend of cocoa nibs, hazelnuts, almonds, cashews and dates, this full-bodied stout showcases the classic flavors of a chocolate praline while embracing the subtle nuances imparted by the bourbon barrel.

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT RESERVE

This special release imperial stout rested for a full two years in casks from one of the most respected names in American whiskey: Parker's heritage collection. This longer aging period goes beyond the brewery's traditional process, drawing out layers of cocoa, dried fruit, spice and toasted oak. The result is a rich, contemplative expression of bourbon county— one that rewards patience and reflects a legacy built slowly, barrel-by-barrel.

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT DOUBLE BARREL

In collaboration with Heaven Hill® distillery, this imperial stout was aged in not one, but two sets of freshly emptied Heaven Hill® bottled-in-bond bourbon barrels. By centering the nuanced complexity of the whiskey, the resulting beer is a true celebration of bourbon, collaboration and the most essential element of every bourbon county release: the barrel itself.

BOURBON COUNTY BRAND STOUT PROPRIETOR'S

First aged in bourbon barrels and then finished with walnuts, pistachios, cassia bark and honey, each ingredient was carefully chosen to complement the aged imperial stout. This baklava-inspired expression with layers of comforting warmth, deeply roasted nuts, and a subtly sweet finish—crafted with love for, and available only in, the city Goose Island calls home: Chicago.
